County buys third ambulance

Board of Supervisors unanimously approve purchasing 'remounted' vehicle

By BOB FENSKE
editor@nhtrib.com

The saga of the third backup ambulance for Chickasaw County EMS came to an end Monday when the Board of Supervisors unanimously approved spending a little more than $200,000 to purchase a "remounted" rig.

After a lengthy discussion that followed the opening of three bids for used ambulances, board members agreed to use $204,415 of the county's American Rescue Plan Act funds to purchase a 2023 chassis that will have a 2009 "ambulance box."

"It's great news for our service and for our county," Chickasaw County EMS Director Joel Knutson said after board members approved the purchase. "Anyone who has attended the meetings I've been at knows how important I felt having a third ambulance was for the long-term viability of our service."

Since being named as the service's director last fall, Knutson has lobbied long and hard for the county to have a third "backup" rig to go with the two new ambulances that it purchased for the county-owned service that also provides service to the cities of New Hampton, Bassett, Fredericksburg, Tonia, Lawler and North Washington.

Supervisors discussed purchasing three new vehicles last fall but ended up buying just two from Klocke's Emergency Vehicles. Over the course of several months, they turned down Chickasaw Ambulance Service owner Jeremy McGrath's offer to

Farmers breathe a sigh of relief as planting nears end

Growers take advantage of window provided by Mother Nature to get 2023 crop in ground

It may not be completely done, but ask ISU Extension agronomist Terry Basil how his territory's farmers are feeling right now and he'll have a one word answer.

Whew.
"Once we got through that cold spell [last month]," Basil said, "the weather was almost perfect and the guys really got a lot of work done in a relatively short amount of time."

"There's always a sense of relief when you can get through planting season with a year a like this one. Great weather, timely rains, you can't just ask for a lot more than what Mother Nature gave our farmers this spring."

Nashua veterans to hold three Memorial Day events

Nashua's Ralph Nicholson VFW Post 6792 will hold three Memorial Day programs on Monday, May 29, to remember those who made the ultimate sacrifice for their country and those veterans who have passed away in the past year.

The day will begin with a program at 8:45 a.m. in Riverton Cemetery before moving to Veterans Park for a 10 a.m. ceremony. Immediately following that ceremony, veterans will go to Oak Hill Cemetery for the final program.

Two-time National History Day national champion Caleb Sinnwell will be the featured speaker at both the Veterans Park and Oak Hill programs.

NASHUA-PLAINFIELD'S HUCK BLOWS AWAY THE FIELD
TO CLAIM OPEN 400 TITLE AT STATE TRACK MEET

By BOB FENSKE
Of the Reporter

Was there any doubt as to who the best 400 runner was in Class 1A after Thursday's lap around the track at Drake Stadium?

Kadence Huck — Nashua-Plainfield's most decorated track and field runner ever — slammed the door shut on the 1A field that tried to keep up with her blistering pace.

In the process, the N-P superstar continues on a path toward greatness.

Oh, many expected Huck to win; after all, she came in as the prohibitive when it came to the 400-meter dash.

But it's how she crossed the tape first that might be the most impressive accomplishment of her sophomore season — that's not done quite yet.

Huck almost eclipsed the 1A all-

Members of Nashua-Plainfield High School's Class of 2023 walk down the sidewalk by the district's elementary school Wednesday when they took part in their school's annual "Senior Parade." Later in the day, the seniors took part in a baccalaureate service and were honored during Awards Night, but the big day is this Sunday, when they take part in the school's commencement ceremony and officially become alums.

County's Cemetery Commission is looking to add some 'youth'

By BOB FENSKE
Of the Reporter

The reporter looked for the right word — seasoned, experienced, something along those lines — as the members of the Chickasaw County Cemetery Commission gathered at the courthouse for a group picture.

"It's OK, you can call us old," Adis Lee said, "because there's not a spring chicken in the bunch."

But for the members of the commission that is in charge of 17 pioneer cemeteries located throughout the county, there's no better time to go on the recruitment trail than May, which is Cemetery Appreciation Month.

"We're looking for some young retirees, that's our target audience," said Diane Murphy, the commission's treasurer, "but we'll take anyone really. If a student wants to get some volunteer hours in and do something that is really important, we've got something they might be interested in."

Once a week, usually on Tuesdays, the commission members meet at a pioneer cemetery and go to work. They clear brush, they trim trees, they fix broken and dilapidated stones. It is, quite simply, work for the young.

Yet, the 11 volunteers who make up the commission are all in their 60s and 70s. Heck, some might be in their 80s, but since discretion is the better part of valor, the reporter looking for that right word decided not to go there.

Commission members, though, are dedicated to those who long ago called Chickasaw County home and want to make sure that their final resting places are well-kept.

"It can be really hard, back-breaking work,"

time record in her marquee event as she was all alone it seemed down the home stretch and reeled in state title No. 2 in the 400-meter test of endurance and speed.

Huck’s brilliant display in front of a packed house clipped out to 55.94 seconds — just a few steps off the all-best mark in the small-school class.

That record could well be shattered next year by Huck.

It’s still held — for now at least — by Ellie Herzberg of Manson-Northwest Webster (55.75), who set the mark in 2013.

“If I just would have cut off a few milliseconds I could have got it,” said Huck about the record. “It’s alright, because I’m very happy with that time. I’m excited for next year.”

But the simple truth is, Huck’s just getting started in her record-breaking career.

Don’t expect Herzberg to hold the all-time title for fastest clip in the 400 for long as Huck continued her historic run in Des Moines by claiming state title No. 4 in her career. She helped lead N-P to its first ever team state title in a girls sport last year as the Huskies won the 1A crown.

“I was hoping, expecting to win. But that time, I was not expecting that at all,” said Huck. “It was really good.”

Down the home stretch with a head of steam — Huck was rollin’.

No one was in sight and not one runner was gonna catch the Nashua-Plainfield superstar at the finish line.

“It was my goal all season. I don’t really know what else to say. It’s not my goal to go out and get beat ever,” said Huck. “Hopefully, I’ll take it all four years, but this is just another step to that.”

But this is also a different Huck than the freshman from the year prior that not many track followers knew outside of northeast Iowa.

“Last year I was kind of a nobody, no one was expecting,” said Huck. “I think that gave me a little bit of a one-up. Here everybody’s chasing me instead of the other way around.”

She’s bigger, stronger, faster and willing to put the hard work in to get better.

“It’s definitely surreal. I think I work for it,” said Huck. “I put quite a bit of time into my athletics.”

Huck’s closest competitors in the 400 on Thursday were seniors Myla Murphy of Graettinger-Terril/Ruthven Ayrshire (58.54) and Brynn Smith of AGWSR third in 58.62.

The icing on the cake for Huck?

It was her mom Jessica’s birthday on Thursday.

Now the stage is set for the ultimate showdown on the girls side in 1A.

Huck will aim to take down Calamus-Wheatland’s Noelle Steines - who won the 3,000 run earlier in the day. Steines - also a sophomore - holds the fastest time in all four classes in the 1,500, a race she’s beaten Huck twice in this spring.

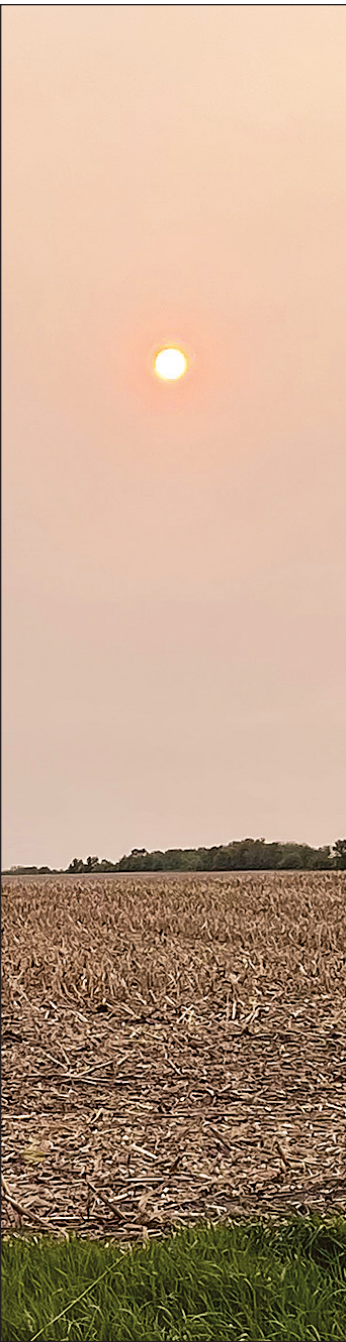

But Huck is 2-for-2 in defeating Steines in the open 800 — first at the Eastern Iowa Track Festival in Iowa City and the other at the Drake Relays.

Both races (800, 1,500) will be run on Saturday.

“We’ll see who comes home with more golds this weekend,” smiled Huck

Huck will anchor N-P’s distance medley at 9 a.m this morning (Friday). The Huskies sport the fifth-fastest qualifying time (4:19.88).

It’s actually not cloudy, it’s smoky on Tuesday evening, when the Reporter’s editor snapped this photo just east of Bassett.

Several wildfires in the Canadian province Alberta are sent plumes of smoke into the atmosphere, where it remained for several days. Health experts, though, said the smoke was high enough in the atmosphere that it didn’t cause any air quality issues.

Mother Nature assists area farmers with their planting

PLANTING: FROM 1

The latest USDA Department of Agriculture Iowa Crop Progress and Condition Report shows just how far farmers have advanced with planting in recent weeks.

The report released on Monday showed that 87 percent of corn has been planted in both the North Central and Northeast districts of the state and that 78 percent of soybeans in the Northeast District and 69 percent of soybeans in the North Central district have been planted.

“And honestly, my guess is that we made up most of the rest this week,” Basol said on Thursday. “The last couple of weeks, our farmers have been able to go like gangbusters.”

The report showed that about a third of the corn in both districts — Bremer and Chickasaw are in the Northeast while Floyd and Butler are in the North Central — has emerged, but maybe the best part of the report was the fact that it shows the area is coming out of the drought that afflicted much of Iowa last summer.

In the North Central District, 86 percent of topsoil has adequate moisture and 8 percent has a surplus of moisture while 84 percent of topsoil has adequate moisture and 11 percent has a surplus.

“I think we were all a little worried last summer and even into the fall,” Basol said. “We knew going into the winter, we needed to recharge those soil moisture compliments, which is unfortunately, is completely up to Mother Nature. You can wish it to snow or rain, but if you figure out how to make it do that, let me know and we’ll retire together.”

Despite the rosy numbers presented by the USDA’s National Agricultural Statistic Service, parts of the area still remain on the U.S. Drought Monitor’s latest report that was released on Thursday.

All of Bremer County, the southern part of Chickasaw County and much of Butler County remains “abnormally dry.”

Still, Basol said conditions heading into this summer are far better than they were when the summer of 2022 ended.

“I know I say this every time we talk,” he said, “but timely rains, that’s a key for farmers. As dry as we were last year, the rain we did get, well, it fell at the right time.”

And with most of the crop in the ground, farmers will begin field scouting and getting ready for side dressing. They will do so breathing a sigh of relief.

“It’s a huge relief to get the crop in on such a timely manner,” Basol said. “Whenever they can be at this spot in May and say ‘it looks good; we don’t have to worry about replanting,’ that’s a good thing, a really good thing.”

Cemetery Commission looking for volunteers

Commission Chairman Dale Liddle said, “but it’s also important to every member of our little group. These are the people who helped make our county what it is today. They deserve that their cemeteries be taken care of.”

And besides, they may be sweating a lot but they also enjoy spending their Tuesdays together. “We hand out a lot of grief,” Co-Chairman Steve Kuennen said, “but the other rule we have is that you have to take it, too. But I mean it, everyone of these people take the work seriously. It’s rewarding work.”

It’s just that lately, the adage of “many hands makes light work” hasn’t applied to the commission; thus, the plea for new volunteers.

Those interested in helping preserve a part of Chickasaw County history and tending to the graves of those who passed away long ago can call the commission’s secretary, Judy Liddle, at 563-237-6097.

Bingo Night to be held in Charles City this Saturday

The Charles City Area Chamber of Commerce will hold a Bingo Night this Saturday at the Columbus Club.

The event will begin at 6:30 p.m. with Early Bird play, and regular Bingo games from 7 tp 9 p.m.

There will be cash prizes, a $300 jackpot, door prizes, a 50/50 raffle and cash bar. The food truck A Shred Above will be set up out front serving the Bingo crowd and general public alike. A Shred Above features gourmet grilled cheese sandwiches and snacks. You do not have to be playing Bingo to take advantage of the food truck (but it’s a lot more fun!).

A total of 28 Bingo games will be offered with reusable slide cards, including Black-out at the end with the $300 jackpot if the winning card(s) hit in 52 numbers or less. A consolation award of $150 will be paid out to the winner after 52 numbers. Discounted multi-game packages will be available, or play ala carte for $1 per card per game. Players must be at least 18 years old or accompanied by an adult.

New Hampton pool to open Memorial Day

The New Hampton Municipal Pool will open its gates for the summer on Memorial Day that falls on Monday, May 29, this year.

The pool will be open seven days a week this season. Adult swim is set for noon to 1:30 p.m. and open swim will be held from 1:30 to 7 p.m., although from 6 to 7 p.m., lanes will be cleared for “fitness swim.”

NOTICE

We will be open by appointment only on Saturdays from Memorial Day thru Labor Day weekend.

Charles City looking to build new high school

By Travis Fischer
tkfischer@charlescitypress.com

The Charles City Community School Board approved petition language for a high school facilities and auditorium bond referendum during its regular board meeting held on Monday, May 8.

The petition question will ask voters in the district to call for a referendum on a general obligation bond of up to $28,500,000 to go toward both renovations to the high school building and the addition of a new auditorium.

If holding a vote is approved and then voters pass the referendum, it would authorize the district to levy up to $2.70 per $1,000 in assessed taxable valuation for up to 20 years to pay down the project, though it was noted that several factors such as refinancing and the use of PPEL funds once the middle school is paid off could mitigate that rate or time frame.

The petition language was approved by unanimous vote by the board, including board member Dr. David Schrodt, who voted against a similar petition in last year’s attempt at moving forward with a bond referendum due to his concerns about the tax increase it would entail.

With the petition language approved, the board can start the process of collecting signatures to bring the matter to the voters. While there had previously been debate on whether or not the ballot measure should be done in September of this year or March of next year, new state legislation signed into law last week has made the debate a moot point as now all bond referendums must be voted on in the November election.

On Tuesday, May 23, the school board will be hosting a work session with Matt Gillaspie of Piper Sandler & Co. to go over the finance details of the referendum. The community is encouraged to attend.

Applications for Svec Tractor Drive due June 1

The Bob Svec Memorial Tractor Drive is coming up quickly. On Sunday, June 25 tractor drivers will eat breakfast at the Big 4 Fairgrounds in Nashua and then drive to Mikkelson Park. They will be provided lunch and then return to the Big 4 Fairgrounds. The New Hampton FFA chapter created the tractor drive last year in honor of Bob Svec. This will be the second annual tractor drive.

Bob Svec was a member of the New Hampton community who not only protected the town as a police officer but promoted agriculture in the area with the FFA Chapter.

Everyone is welcome to eat, any additional people attending can pay at the door and receive a meal ticket for the event.

If you would like to participate in driving your tractor please contact one of the individuals below:

- Quinten Reicks, Student Chair: qreicks@new-hampton.k12.ia.us
- James Russ, Advisor: j_russ@new-hampton.k12.ia.us
- Rachel Bauler, Advisor: r_bauler@new-hampton.k12.ia.us

Applications are also available at the New Hampton High School office and must be returned no later than June 1.

The registration fee will go towards a t-shirt, meal, and the rest will be donated back to the New Hampton FFA Chapter for the Bob Svec Memorial Fund and Scholarship.

second from the bottom.

N-P led most of the race, but senior Viking Treycey Rollene ran an incredible anchor for N-K.

“That’s kids a stud. We knew how good he was going in. We just wanted to have as big a lead as we could going into it. I don’t know if you could have a big enough lead to beat that kid.”

The Vikings’ hammer wasn’t going to get caught – but that didn’t deter Kalainoff.

“He’s just the secret ingredient – just needed that guy that we didn’t know we had,” said Sudol. “Just knowing Eli and the type of competitor he is – we knew at districts he would step up and give us that secret sauce that we needed.”

Kalainoff ran the 4x800 only a handful of times prior to the qualifier.

“That’s his second 8 of the year,” said Harrington. “I’m pumped. Chase – the 4x800 is his favorite team.”

The Huskies are looking to bring last Thursday’s positive vibes from their fantastic run in the 4x800 down to Polk County and the famed blue oval.

“Just for the kids to keep believing in what I thought and what I saw all year long – I knew we had a chance going in, but to run that there was just insane. All the kids pretty much PR’d.”

Hansen had this to say about Kalainoff’s anchor leg.

“Eil was kind of our final piece,” said Hansen. “Running a 2:11 is not easy by any means.”

N-P’s historic district championship included Husky senior Aiden Lamborn’s first-place finish in the high jump (six feet). Lamborn’s gold medal leap over the bar sent him down to Des Moines and the state meet for the third-consecutive season.

N-P’s shuttle hurdle relay will also run at state for the third year in a row.

The Huskies came from behind to launch the Husky fanbase off their seats in the bleachers with excitement after junior Titus Evans’ “money” anchor leg allowed Nashua-Plainfield to cross the tape first in 1:03.34.

Husky senior Kaden Wilken led off the race, followed by Lamborn, Harrington and Evans. The foursome sports the 12th-quickest qualifying time.

“I knew we were back behind a little bit, but I wasn’t too worried,” said Evans. “I just knew I had to put on the burners and get going.”

The 4x400 ran a time of 3:35 and is made up of Harrington, freshman Blaine Brannon, Wilken and Evans.

Wilken will run in the 110 hurdles for the first time in his career at state. He won the event in 16.0. Evans finished third in 16.4.

Navarii Williams, another star freshman for Sudol, placed runner-up in the 100 dash (11.73) to Turkey Valley senior Noah Hanson (11.66).

Williams also placed fourth in the open 200 with a time of 24.35.

Blanchard was third in the open 800 run in 2:11.

Hard work paying off for Nashua-Plainfield girls golfers mine is not ideal,” said Franzen. “I flipped a switch in my mind. I said, ‘okay, we’re not going to hit any more bad shots, we’re going to play good golf now. It’s time to turn it on, let’s go.’”

REGIONAL: FROM 11

Paige’s cousin – sophomore Faith Franzen – is another encouraging story of hard work and perseverance like Sinnwell’s. She finished third overall with a 99.

Sinnwell ended up with a 100 and Nelson shot a 112.

Paige Franzen summed up Sinnwell’s commitment to the team with a story about what it means for her to improve and help out the team.

“When she comes in with low scores, she goes in and gets her scorecard because she’s so proud of it. She has her mom hang it on the fridge,” said Paige Franzen. “That’s amazing. We’re all proud of her. It just contributes to our whole team’s success.”

Sinnwell, a lefty who placed fourth individually at the regional, punched in extra hours out on the course – even when it was pouring down rain, her teammates exclaimed. She also took lessons to hone in her golf game – whether it was in the summer or in the winter.

“I’m just happy that my scores are lower because I feel like I’ve put in a lot of time this summer,” said Sinnwell. “I’m just happy that my work is paying off. I wanted to do good today, because I’m not doing it for myself – I’m doing it for everyone one of us.”

Nelson was a freshman on the N-P golf team when her season was wiped out – as was the case for all spring sports in the state of Iowa. She knew if she would have competed that year in 2020, she would have dealt with some ups-and-downs out on the course. But Nelson said she’s better because of it.

“When I was a freshman we didn’t even have a full team,” said Nelson. “It was kind of a blessing in disguise for me to have that season off. It would have been rough, but it probably would have advanced my game one year.”

But Nelson, who finished 10th individually, is playing just fine and has also taken her game to another level as an upper-classman. She’s one of two seniors on the squad. The other senior, also a left-hander like Sinnwell, is Ellie Woodman. She’s a beginner at golf and fired a 136. N-P junior Payton Howland carded a 144 in her second season out on the links.

Trost said his group of golfers all like each other’s company. That matters in any sport, especially one as difficult as golf.

“They get along with each other. They like being with each other,” said Trost. “That says worlds about them as people. They’re just really good girls.”

Trost begged the question after his team’s productive day on Friday. He may have stole the quote from Iowa women’s basketball coach Lisa Bluder – who guided her Hawkeye women’s basketball squad to a national runner-up finish this past winter.

But who’s really counting?

“I’m going to copy Lisa Bluder’s comment - Why not us?” said Trost.

Ellie Eick and freshman Jalissa White. That relay sports the fifth-quickest qualifying time in the small-school class.

“It is a huge accomplishment to end your season down on the blue oval and we are so excited to see what that brings!” said N-P head coach Amber McCall.

N-P finished sixth as a team at the qualifier. The Huskies scored 52 points. AGWSR won the meet with 117 points.

“We were very happy with the results of our girls performance at last Thursday’s state qualifier. We had many PRs and season-bests. The girls went out, competed with their heart and gave it their all. We couldn’t have asked for more from them,” said McCall.

N-P ran personal-bests in the sprint medley (fourth, 2:01.72), the 4x200 (eighth, 1:58.77) and the 4x100 (11th, 58.49).

Frost was seventh in the high jump (4-6) and freshman Eden Lamborn placed eighth in the shot put (33-5.75). That was a career-best toss for Lamborn.

Syphilis is a sexually transmissible infection (STI) that may have no symptoms. If not treated, it can cause serious, long-term health problems. Syphilis can also be passed on to sexual partners or to an unborn baby during pregnancy. Thankfully, it's easy to test, treat and cure! If you're sexually active, make sure that getting tested for syphilis is part of your regular health routine.

Board OKs buying ‘remount’ to give county ‘backup’ rig sell the county a 2003 ambulance and also didn't act on other offers that came their way.

Earlier this month, though, the board OK'd Knutson to send out request for proposals to dealers to see if the county could land a used ambulance, and they received three bids that were opened on Monday.

Two were submitted by Klocke. One was for the remounted vehicle while the other was for a 2013 vehicle that had 250,000 miles on it. The third bid came from Arrow Ambulances, which offered the county a 2012 model with 144,000 miles on it.

"I don't think I want to trust someone's life with a vehicle with 250,000 miles," Supervisor Steve Breitbach said, and his fellow board members seemed to agree as none of them voiced support for the vehicle. "I'd be in favor of the 2023 chassis. We know that vehicles are going to keep going up in value, or cost. I think we should spend the money now and have a decent vehicle for the future."

The bids ranged from $22,500 for the high-mileage vehicle to $89,900 for the Arrow rig to $150,000 for the remount, but when the cost of putting in a power-load cot system and cot were added, the bids received ranged from $76,915 to $204,415.

Supervisor Travis Suckow asked Knutson if the backup rig would need the power-load cot system, and the director said the "honest answer [is] no."

But Knutson also pointed out that having the third rig with a power-load system would allow the service to "switch out parts" if it needed to do so and also pointed out that purchasing the power-load system could be paid by just one Worker's Compensation claim.

Knutson also said that no matter which rig was purchased, a cot would have to be bought.

"The most you're saving is $27,000," he said, "and I think the advantages of having a power-load are worth that."

Supervisor Scott Cerwinski made a motion to purchase the remounted vehicle "to be housed in Fredericksburg when not needed."

County Attorney David Laudner, though, cautioned the board about making the housing in Fredericksburg part of the motion.

He said a "cleaner" way for the supervisors to have a vehicle in the second-largest city in the ambulance service's area would be to approve the purchase of the vehicle and then have a motion in which the supervisors stated their intent to house a vehicle in Fredericksburg.

That motion was voted down, and Cerwinski then made a second motion — one that was contingent on the board approving a budget amendment.

Again, Laudner had concerns about basing a purchase on a budget amendment, and after former Auditor Joan Knoll told the board that it might not need an amendment until much later in the fiscal year, that motion was voted down.

Breitbach then made the motion to purchase the remounted vehicle without any language about where it would be housed or being subject to a budget amendment, Cerwinski seconded it and all five supervisors voted to go ahead with the purchase.

Knutson said there are a number of reasons he feels Chickasaw County EMS needed a third vehicle, including the fact that it allowed the service the ability to take more inter-facility transfers from MercyOne New Hampton Medical Center.

"The bottom line is if we hit a deer tomorrow and it takes three weeks to get it fixed," he said following the meeting, "that's three weeks where we're out when it comes to transfers. And I've said it over and over, but that's a huge hit to our revenue, of any ambulance service's revenue."

The vehicle is expected to be delivered to the county late this summer.

One question that remained unanswered Monday was where the service will eventually be based permanently.

Knutson and board members went into closed session for about 45 minutes to "discuss the potential sale or purchase of real estate" but when they returned to open session, Board Chairman Matt Kuhn said there was no action going to be taken by the board.

Currently, Chickasaw County EMS is renting garage space from the city of New Hampton and its first crew is being housed at a rental home in the 200 block of South Walnut Avenue, about three blocks from the ambulances.

Visual Phonics

Does your child have difficulty producing certain sounds in words? If yes, does that difficulty translate into spelling words incorrectly when they sound them out? Visual phonics may help! In speech therapy we use visual phonics to pair a "visual" of what the sound looks like and where it comes from, with the spoken sound it corresponds to, to promote better articulatory skills.

The visual phonics technique gives students a concrete way to understand and produce speech sounds by providing both visual and kinesthetic information. Visual phonics helps students understand a sound and how it is made, which is critical in literacy, language, and speech.

Research tells us that reading provides the foundation for all future learning. Phonemic awareness and phonics are critical areas associated with effective reading with phonemic awareness being at the core of the foundation.

Phonemic awareness is defined as the ability to hear, identify, and manipulate the individual sounds, or phonemes, in spoken words.

Before children can learn to read written print, they must become more aware of how the sounds in words work. They need to understand that words are made up of individual sounds, or phonemes, and then they must be able to connect those phonemes to written letters and words.

Research suggests one of the strongest and most consistent early predictors of later conventional literacy skills is the ability to manipulate the sounds of spoken language.

Developing strong phonemic awareness skills, such as being able to break words apart into their smaller sound units, or phonemes, consistently leads to better overall literacy skills later on. This is why visual phonics are an important component to learning the correlation between letters and the sound they make.

Visual Phonics is a tool that specifically focuses on individual sounds or phonemes, and it can have a direct and positive impact on the development of a child's phonemic awareness skills.

Visual Phonics is the idea that seeing the sound in turn helps us recognize and say the sound. It is a visual and kinesthetic learning approach using our hands and mouth to say and show letter sounds, to better learn how to produce phonemes or sounds in our own speech.

Taylor Physical Therapy is accepting new speech therapy patients in clinics located in Nashua, Denver, Parkersburg and at Waverly Health Center!

City of Nashua CITY COUNCIL MINUTES City Council Chambers, City Hall The Nashua City Council met in regular session on May 15, 2023, in Council Chambers at City Hall. The meeting was called to order at 7:00PM with Mayor Anthofer presiding. Council members present were Jake Johnson, Samantha Johnson, Hal Kelleher III, Tim Malven and Ernie Willsher. City employee(s) City Clerk John Ott and Nashua Area EMS Director Zenda Vikturek were present along with 2 guests. Mayor Anthofer asked for consideration approving the regular agenda. Willsher/M, J. Johnson/S, M/C. RC: all ayes. Mayor Anthofer called for a motion to approve the consent agenda: Minutes from the Regular Council Meeting May 1, 2023, Building Permits: 515 Main St., 1315 Madison St., 1459 280th St., Demolition/Excavation Permits: 1301 Howard St., Alcohol/Liquor: Big Four Fair, Cigarette/Tobacco Permits: Caseys, Payment of Claims (see claims report): Total Claims to be Paid $267,938.03 + Wages $7,755.40. J. Johnson motioned to approve the consent calendar after removing 1459 280th St. building permit because it is out of city limits. Malven/S, M/C. RC: all ayes. Mayor Anthofer asked for public comments. One citizen noted that they have had issues with their sewer backing up. They inquired if the city goes through line and cleans out the sewer mains on a regular/scheduled basis. The Mayor stated that they should be; however the service is provided by our 3rd party contractor and so he wasn't sure if it was being done or not. The Mayor also stated that the city will be bringing in a new contractor beginning July 1st and that the sewer mains would be the city's responsibility when the new contractor takes over. The citizen was asking the council to pay for damages incurred from the sewer backing up. The city recommended the citizen contact People's Services to see if they will pay for the damages. City Clerk Ott will provide the contractor's contact information to the citizen. Zenda Vikturek Nashua Area EMS Director provided a brief update on the ambulance. She said that once the city receives the title for the ambulance, they will be able to apply for Medicare reimbursement. They still have some other steps to complete prior to getting state approval; however, things are moving along. Brandy Molitor talked about the Nashua ambulance and provided some insight to the council on the difference between a Mutual Aid Agreement	which is an agreement where one entity will help provide mutual aid to another entity if the other entity has used up its resources. A 28E Agreement is an agreement between entities which usually has a financial tie where one entity provides a service for a negotiated fee and terms that is not offered by the other entity. She recommended that the city utilize a mutual aid agreement vs. a 28E agreement with the surrounding communities once the ambulance service is up and running. She stated that all the other communities around the area use mutual aid agreements and she didn't see why the city would pay for something it didn't need to even though it wouldn't be able to operate 24/7 and would only provide basic life support. She also stated that if the city had a 28E Agreement every time there was a dispatch call to Nashua, the entity that Nashua had a 28E Agreement with would be paged out even if Nashua's ambulance was in service. Mayor Anthofer called for a motion to adopt the following resolution: 23-28 Resolution Adopting a Seatbelt/Safety Restraint Policy. S. Johnson/M, J/Johnson/S, M/C. RC: all ayes. Mayor Anthofer called for a motion to approve the following permits: Building: 115 Cedar Hill, 616 Main St., 310 Main St., 203 Charles City Rd., 1014 Greeley St., Demolition/Excavation: 1014 Greeley St., J. Johnson motioned to approve all permits, but with the stipulation that 115 Cedar Hill would only be approved if they comply with all setback requirements as the setbacks were not noted on the building permit. S. Johnson/S, M/C. RC: all ayes. Business of the Mayor: The Mayor discussed 103 Dawn Dr. and the work that needs to be completed to fix their driveway from when the water line had to be dug up and a chunk of their driveway was broken. The city will hire Hanneman Construction to fix the area that is approximately 15' by 13' by removing damaged area and replacing it with new for a total of $1,675.00. Department Reports: City Clerk Ott informed the council that the bank reconciliation for April had been completed and is ready for review. He presented the April financial reports. He asked the council for approval for Deputy Clerk Lisa Berends to attend the Municipal Professional Institute July 17-20, 2023. S. Johnson/M, J. Johnson/S, M/C. RC: all ayes. City Clerk Ott also asked for approval to attend the Municipal Professional Academy from July 26-30, 2023. Malven/M, S. Johnson/S, M/C. RC: all ayes. City Clerk Ott also reminded the council of the public hearing	set for June 5th for the special permit for 801 Woodbridge. City Council: J. Johnson informed the council that the Nashua Fire Department would like to use $15,000 of the Watson Fund to purchase LUCAS devices for the ambulance service. City Clerk Ott will put it on the agenda for June 5th. Kelleher inquired about the nuisance properties that were sent letters and asked if the city had heard from anyone. City Clerk Ott stated that he has not personally, but it is possible Lisa has heard something. He will check with Lisa and report back. People's Services provided the monthly water/wastewater report and Heather Hackman Library Director provided the library's monthly report. Discussion/Action Malven/M, Willsher/S, M/C to form a hiring committee consisting of Council Members J. Johnson, Willsher, Parks/ Maintenance Personnel Zade McCall, and City Clerk John Ott and/or Deputy Clerk Lisa Berends. RC: all ayes. J. Johnson/M, Willsher/S, M/C to approve City Clerk Ott as the authorized signer for the Nashua Area EMS Service. RC: all ayes. Malven/M, Willsher/S, M/C to approve the estimate from Titus Locksmith to replace the locks and key all locks to match at the Wastewater treatment plant and wells #4 and #5. RC: all ayes. The council discussed updating the zoning maps. No decisions were made. J. Johnson/M, Malven/S, M/C to approve becoming a member of the IaCMA (Iowa City Management Association) member. This provides direct access/ communication to all city managers within the State of Iowa that are members of the Iowa League of Cities as well as a lot of other resources for the city. RC: all ayes. The council discussed a billing issue at 416 Panama St, but no decision was made because the council wanted more information. City Clerk will gather more information and it will be addressed at the next council meeting. City Clerk Ott mentioned that the city will be getting another estimate for changing out the lights in city owned facilities to LED and he will meet with the next contractor on Wednesday. J. Johnson mentioned that the Fire Department may change the lights out themselves instead of hiring it done due to the costs. City Clerk Ott noted that the April incident report from the Fire Department was available if anyone wanted to review it. There was no other business. S.	Johnson motioned to adjourn. J. Johnson/S, M/C. RC: all ayes. The meeting adjourned at 8:59PM. in which they carded a 240 as a team.

"I think when we got more and more confident as the season went on," Faith Franzen said, "and then when we went to conference, it hit us — or me, at least — that hey, we can play with these good teams."

After taking third at the Top of Iowa Conference East meet on May 7, the Huskies claimed a first round regional win at home last Friday and besting the TIC East champion, North Butler, in the process.

"I just had a feeling all along this was going to be our year," Payton Howland said, "and we knew if we were going to get to state, this had to be the year."

It was, thanks to a regional tournament in which Franzen simply torched Lone Pine to win medalist honors by nine strokes. Her cousin, Faith, finished with a 109, and the most improved Husky, Natalie Sinnwell, finished with a 110. Senior Autumn Nelson added a 113 to round out the "scorers" for Nashua-Plainfield.

"We're all friends, we're all in this together," Paige Franzen said, "and everyone works hard on this team. That's the best part; we really had to work for this."

Her 80 was by far the best 18-hole score of her life, and the unquestioned leader of this group of Huskies said a combination of factors have helped her transform from a good player to a great one.

"I am such a perfectionist," she said. "I know it, everyone knows it, but I think the big thing for me lately is not letting one shot get to me. Trost is always telling us don't let one bad shot become two or three or more bad shots."

She paused and laughed. "You see, coach, I do listen to you."

Huskies get off to great start at state

BOYS TRACK: FROM 1

N-P's shuttle hurdle foursome has finished near the back of the pack at state the last two trips to Des Moines. Evans was a freshman on the team in 2021, Wilken a sophomore.

"That's been the goal all year - is to bring home hardware," said Lamborn.

The group finally hit on the big stage Thursday and Nashua-Plainfield's crowd let you know about it as a big roar enveloped the large stadium that hosts the Drake Relays every year.

"In any sport, Nashua's crowd's going to come and travel and support us," said Harrington.

Lamborn jumped high in the air to "bump" into a teammate - celebratory style - near the Husky cheering section just past the first turn of the track after the Huskies completed their race.

Lamborn repeated what his coaches told him prior to the start of the postseason when it comes to big-time success on the blue oval in Des Moines.

"We had to run clean in districts and run fast at state," said Lamborn, who stands 6-7 and runs second leg on the squad.

The happy Huskies even played around with the thought of a trip to the nearby amusement park - Adventureland - if their coaches would allow that type of excursion to Altoona on Thursday afternoon for a few roller-coaster rides and a chance to play some skee ball.

"We were joking with our coaches, after we're done running tomorrow...can we go to Adventure Land?" said Lamborn.

Lamborn said if the Huskies made the finals, Nashua-Plainfield coaches would "talk about it."

N-P's 4x800 relay squad of Harrington, junior Dylan Blanchard, as well as freshmen Jase Hansen and Eli Kalainoff, placed 18th overall in a time of 8:38.73.

Hansen, who ran third leg, said he knows the squad made their head coach - Chase Sudol - proud.

"I feel like he was definitely proud," said Hansen. "I feel like all of our hard work and our obstacles that we went through this season - this race in general was honestly super surreal."

How THEY GOT THERE — THE STATE QUALIFYING MEET REPORTS

N-P boys bring home district banner

Huskies clinch their first-ever track district team title in final race of the night

Chase Sudol didn't hold a crystal ball standing outside the discus cage at Northwood High School late Thursday afternoon.

But he did predict the future — kind of.

His Husky 4x800 — for all intents and purposes — punched its ticket to state with an electrifying second-place run in that relay that was a PR by well over 20 seconds.

That set the stage for a dramatic and exciting finish for the Nashua-Plainfield boys track squad — which went on to win the district championship in the last race of the evening.

Sudol said it's the first time in school history that N-P has won a district championship in the sport of track and field.

The N-P leader of the track program had this to say roughly four hours before his 4x400 passed St. Ansgar down the home stretch to lock up third place in the relay. That enabled the Huskies to overtake front-runner Central Springs for the district title — 97.5 to 94.

Oh, that 4x400?

They'll also run at state today (Friday) shortly after 2 p.m. in the prelims.

"Now we're going to get things rocking," said Sudol after the 4x800's sterling effort vaulted them down to Des Moines. "The kids are excited — the adrenaline's going."

The state takes each winner of an event in Class 1A as an automatic entrant into the state meet. Then the next 16-best times, jumps or throws fill out the 24-person fields in each state event.

That meant Northwood-Kensett — the winner of the 4x800 at the Class 1A qualifier in Northwood — automatically qualified for state with a blue-ribbon run of 8:26.43. The Vikings hold the sixth-best qualifying time headed into state.

N-P ran an 8:31.96 with the group of senior Bo Harrington, junior Dylan Blanchard and the race was finished by freshmen Jase Hansen and Eli Kalainoff.

N-P had to wait until it was officially announced that the Huskies had made it to state after completion of the qualifier — but Sudol knew his team was headed down to Des Moines.

He had a feeling that a good run like that wouldn't be wasted by not being able to compete at state.

"It was just unreal," said Sudol. "Jase is actually my cousin — so I had a lot of stakes riding on that one."

Kalainoff was the "spice" that put the relay over the top and back down to Des Moines. Nashua ran in the event two years in 2021 and placed 23rd —

While it might have been a formality that Nashua-Plainfield's Kadence Huck would cruise to victory in her individual events (400, 800, 1,500) in Northwood last Thursday, the races still needed to be run.

Huck surprised next to no one as she put herself in position to claim more shiny gold at state as she was victorious in the 400 dash (57.71), the open 800 (2:23.8) and the 1,500 run (4:56.05).

There would be no PRs on this night at the state-qualifying meet for Huck — she was never really pushed in any of the races. She did come close to breaking her own school record in the 400 dash (57.36).

Huck also anchored the winning Husky distance medley relay at the qualifier with a PR of 4:19.88. That time was a season-best with the group of juniors Jordyn Frost,

Improving Huskies claim first-round regional at home

By KELLY TERPSTRA
Of the Reporter

The Nashua-Plainfield girls golf team has come a long ways. That goes without saying.

Just two seasons ago head coach Jeff Trost's Huskies sported just three players in 2021 — Maddy Rodruck, Autumn Nelson and Natalie Sinnwell.

With those low numbers out for the program — that meant no team score was possible.

My how times have changed.

Nelson is now a senior and Sinnwell is, well, arguably the the most-improved player on the squad as long gone are the days when the N-P junior shoots in the 70s or 80s for a nine-hole round.

Those resurgent Huskies — backed by their No. 1 player in sophomore Paige Franzen — continued to surprise naysayers by qualifying for the regional final at home on Friday.

The Huskies — now sporting a full lineup of six golfers — topped the field with a 402. North Butler was second with a 429 and St. Ansgar also advanced to the regional final at Lone Pine Golf Course in Colesburg on Wednesday with an 18-hole total of 463.

This was the first regional finals' berth for N-P since 2016.

"I'm just super excited for the kids. That's why I do this," said Trost, in his 43rd year as N-P coach. "Too see that excitement, to see the hard work... kind of come together. It's so much fun."

North Butler — which had never lost to N-P in head-to-head play this season — was paced by junior medalist Reagan Mulder's 85.

Franzen dialed in her game in her second nine holes played on the Nashua Town & Country Club Course after a disappointing 52 in the morning session. She finished with a career low of 39 on the back nine — some five strokes better than her low round at her home course.

"Obviously a 52 on the front

N-P boys clear hurdles to advance to state meet final

Shuttle hurdle relay team highlights a solid first day at Class 1A state track meet

By KELLY TERPSTRA

Show up and show out. Those were Titus Evans' words after this Nashua-Plainfield Husky shuttle hurdle squad did what they had failed to do in two previous tries at Drake Stadium in Des Moines. And that's advance to the finals at the state meet and earn a medal. The Huskies can cross that one off the board. N-P shot out of the gates in their heat and then waited as their season-best time of 1:01.54 held up. The Huskies placed second in heat one and wound up fifth-best overall. That meant the Huskies will run for a state championship a little after noon on Saturday. "That's what we've been wanting all year," said N-P senior Kaden Wilken. Wilken will run in the 110 hurdles this morning (Friday). He is one of the three seniors on the N-P squad - along with Aiden Lamborn and Bo Harrington. Evans, a junior, is the anchor.

Huskies pull off golf stunner

Franzen's medalist round helps Nashua-Plainfield to first state tournament in seven years

By BOB FENSKE
Of the Reporter

Nashua-Plainfield sophomore Paige Franzen was already "in." The sophomore's career-best round of 80 at the Class 1A final round regional tournament in Colesburg had not only punched her ticket to state but had also given her medalist honors at the biggest meet of the season. But she didn't want to go to Boone next week alone. And she won't as Nashua-Plainfield fired a 412 to take second place in the team standings at Lone Pine Country Club and earn its first trip to the state tournament since 2016. "It's so much better that we're all going," Franzen said. "I mean it's not like I wouldn't have gone, but to experience this as a team, that's pretty cool."

But for a while, she wasn't that sure the Huskies had pulled off a stunning second-place finish. Here's the story: Tournament officials lumped the final round regional individual qualifiers into one "team" as it entered the results, and once those individual qualifiers had four scores on the board, the software program recorded a team score. "I looked over at Paige and she was holding three fingers up," Nashua-Plainfield coach Jeff Trost said, "and I knew that was a 'team' that really wasn't a team and I nodded my head 'no' and held up two fingers. Once they figured it out, let's just say I had a bunch of happy girls." This wasn't exactly a team that came out of the gate this season firing on all cylinders; in fact, the Huskies opened the season with a nine-hole meet
